There is no more analytical or fiercer discriminating judicial mind to be found among the bar of southeastern Nebraska than that possessed by Hon. John S. Stull, republican nominee for district judge. He is a legal giant, broad in mind and mighty in judicial attainments. He will prove a most valuable official as he sits on the bench of this district after the first of next January, dispensing perfect justice to all. Compare him in point of ability and experience with that lawyerette, Edwin Fallon, the product of the unauthorized working of the democrats and pops—Tecumseh Chieftain.

A horse kicked J. S. Shafer, of the Freeman House, Middleburg, N. Y., on the knee, which laid him up in bed and caused the knee joint to become stiff. A friend recommended him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did, and in two days he was able to be around. Mr. Shafer has recommended it to many others and says it excellent for any kind of bruise or sprain. This Remedy is also famous for its cures of rheumatism. For sale by M. H. Taylor, druggist.
